

Please respect my privacy at home by keeping restrictions strong on no-call lists. Wisconsin's laws should remain as they are in keeping business solicitation calls out of my home. I pay for my phone service, and I do not grant the privilege of using my phone number to businesses that I do not contact first.